

COLLYER CRAWINGS.

COLLYER, Sept. 9, 1891.

Many men of many minds.
Many birds of many kinds.
Many men do not agree,
For some of them are Bugs, you see.
Our weather signals denoted this coming wet weather.
Dry goods at cost for thirty days at Lou A. Fishers.

Miss Jennie MacMillan returned to Chicago Saturday morning.

If the "Bugs" tail feathers were not pulled out he would fly high.

Collyer has no rough on rats nor fly poison but has rough on cats.

If you want a wagon or harness or farming machinery, go to Lou A. Fishers.

Mr. John Wood, of Chicago, on his return from California visits his old schoolmate, M. A. MacMillan.

Miss Ollie Teague, of Brown county, sister of Mrs. Wm. Bower, arrived Saturday night to spend the winter in this city.

Mr. Victor Zawodsky, after about one years absence in Virginia, returned home Monday, not as fleshy as when he left for the east.

M. A. MacMillan talks of opening the great ore deposits found on his place. If such be the case he will go to Kansas City to superintend the mine there.

Mr. Tom Gilgray, of Chicago, formerly of this place, who owns 160 acres on Big Creek, southwest of here, is expected soon and intends making it his future home.

BILLY BOWLESS.

CENTER SHOTS.

September 9, 1891.

Stanton, Hobbick and Nixon are threshing for Centerites this week.

G. M. Stanton attended the funeral of his uncle, H. F. Slocum, at Ellis last Sunday.

Mary Stephens begins a seven months term of school in district 14 this week. They will have a good school.

C. M. Scott is at work in the railroad paint shops in Ellis but his widow attends to the farm in good shape. She is a hustler and will sow a considerable acreage of wheat.

J. M. Benson has more, better, and larger melons than any other man in the settlement. He is liberal with them. Everybody goes to Benson's for melons, including an occasional coyote.

The attention of the road overseer is called to the impassable condition of the ford on Big Creek near the Chalk school house. Two loads of broken stone and gravel would repair it. We should have a bridge. It would be cheaper in the end.

A prairie fire was started about ten o'clock last Saturday morning near the McMichael homestead on the west side of the Ness City road and burned to the river, a distance of eight miles. It burned over the greater part of the Willcox ranch which is sub-leased by W. B. Cypher to H. J. Hille who sustains the greatest direct loss. Indirectly we are all losers. Part of the same territory was cursed by fire three years ago and its course is still traceable by the stunted grass on the burnt district. This fire was started by Frank Chapan who was herding cattle and had a match he did not want any longer. He scratched it. It was a good match, but he thought it had gone out before he threw it away. There is great danger of fire this fall. We can not be too careful. Matches should be kept under lock and key.

Investigate their merits. De Witt's Little Early Risers don't grip, cause nausea or pain, which accounts for their popularity. A. B. Jones says he would not run a drug store without these pills. 13-30-1yr

Don't storm the system as you would a fort. If held by the enemy, constipation, gently persuade it to surrender with De Witt's Little Early Risers. These little pills are wonderful convicers. 13-30-1yr.

A Liberal Proposition.

Who has not heard of that paragon of family papers, the enterprising and popular WEEKLY DETROIT FREE PRESS? For a generation its name has been a household word, and it has become a synonym for all that is excellent, pure and elevating in journalism. It is delightfully entertaining without resort to cheap sensationalism, instructive without being prosy or pedantic. Combining the literary qualities of the expensive magazine with the breezy characteristics of the newspaper, it leaves nothing to be desired by the average reader. It is looked upon as a welcome visitor by every family who reads it, while thousands regard it as indispensable and would on no account go without it. An enormous circulation of 125,000 copies per week attests its wonderful popularity. Recognizing the fact that there are those who are unfamiliar with its surpassing merits as a home paper, the publishers offer to send The Free Press to them for the balance of this year (over five months) for only thirty cents—a club of four for one dollar or a club of ten for two dollars. All readers should subscribe at once. Send for free sample copy.

Notice to Shoemakers.

On account of old age and sore afflictions I want to sell my boot and shoe business in the City of Wa-Keeney, Trego county, Kansas. I have a good set of tools and everything that is necessary to carry on a custom, including a good English Bradbury sewing machine for patching boots and shoes. I have a good stock of leather and findings, a few dozen pairs of boots and shoes of my own manufacturing. I will sell reasonable. There is no better location in western Kansas than Wa-Keeney for a good custom shop; always plenty to do and good pay. I have always kept one and sometimes two journeymen when I could get them. I also have a good house and lot, with barn and outhouses, which I will sell cheap. Correspondence solicited.

A. P. Lipe.

Still the Favorite.

If you are contemplating a trip for business or pleasure it will be well to remember that the Burlington Route is still the favorite. Her old established line to Chicago hardly needs more than a mere mention for the reason that every man, woman and child in the country is so familiar with the fact that over this line runs the famous solid vestibule "ELT" with its splendid Pullman Sleepers, chair cars and dining cars.

Your attention is now called to our double daily service between Kansas City, Atchison, St. Joseph and St. Louis. Heretofore we had but one daily train from the Missouri river to St. Louis, that being a night train, placing passengers in St. Louis in the morning in time for breakfast and all eastern connections, but on account of the increasing demand another train has been put on and now leaves Kansas City, Atchison and St. Joseph in the morning, placing the passenger in St. Louis in the early evening of the same day.

Omana and Council Bluffs are put in rapid communication with the lower Missouri river points by two superb daily trains, one leaving Kansas City late in the morning and the other in the evening, making the run from Kansas City in about eight hours. The morning train carries a through buffet sleeping car to St. Paul and Minneapolis, placing the passenger in the twin cities twenty hours after leaving Kansas City.

For further information call on or address H. C. Orr, G. S. W. P. A., 900 Main street, Kansas City, Mo., or A. C. Dawes, G. P. & T. A., St. Joseph, Mo.

—The following extract from a letter written by J. A. Starbuck, of Yorktown Iowa, speaks for itself. "Two years ago, in harvest time, a young man came in my store and said he had been binding wheat during the forenoon, and was so bad with diarrhoea and colic pains, that he would have to lay off unless he could get relief. I took a bottle of your diarrhoea remedy from the shelf; gave him a dose; sold him the bottle, and gave him the bottle, and told him I would give him the money back if it did no good. He came back next morning and said the single dose did its work so well, that he not only kept up his place during the afternoon, but had worked all night; and had the price of the dose I gave him been three dollars, it would have been cheap. I would further say, keep on with your good work. You cannot recommend your medicine too highly. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is one of the greatest medicines of the age; it cannot be beat. Wishing you much success and prosperity which you richly deserve, I remain, truly your friend." For sale by all Druggists.
